Founders Day Picnic is 1 February

The Squadron's annual Founder's Day picnic will be held on Sunday, 1 February at the Jupiter Beach Island Pavilion, from 1130 to 1430 hours.

The event celebrates the founding 90 years ago of the U.S. Power Squadrons, as well as the founding in 1944 of the Palm Beach Squadron.

A ceremony including a display of flags will be held at noon.

This year's event will be an all-you-can-eat lunch of barbecue chicken and ribs, hot dogs and hamburgers, with all the fixin's, catered by the Bombino Brothers of Fort Lauderdale.

Price for members and guests is $12 per person. Please make your reservation by mail, and enclose your check made out to Palm Beach Sail & Power Squadron, to P/C Klaus Reinwarth, 8896 SW Fishermans Wharf Drive, Stuart, Fla. 34997. Your check should be received by 26 January.

The event will be held rain or shine since it is under cover.

January's rendezvous destination: Sebastian

Capt. Hiram's Marina Hotel and Restaurant near the Sebastian Inlet will be the destination for a Squadron rendezvous scheduled for 5 and 6 January (Monday and Tuesday). Ten slips have been reserved for Squadron boats.

The marina is just off Marker 66 on the Intracoastal Waterway.

For more information, and to reserve a space, call Spike Speckeen, P, at 842-9589.

Raft-Up for January at Flagler Bridge

The Squadron raft-up this month, on Saturday the 24th, will be held near the Palm Beach side of the Flagler Bridge, on the north side.

The event should run from about 1100 to 1500 hours (11 a.m.-3 p.m.)

Participants should bring their own lunch and drinks, and a dessert to share.

For information, or to say you're coming, call Gene Berman, AP, at 298-1827.

Lunch Bunch detours to Crazy Buffet on 22 January

The Thursday Lunch Bunch will take a break for New Year's Day, and will return to the Roadhouse Grill on U.S. 1 for the next two weeks in January.

Then the gang will try a new site on 22 January — the Crazy Buffet, 2030 Palm Beach Lakes Blvd., West Palm Beach (just east of the I-95 exit). Starting time is around 1100 hours.

The Lunch Bunch will return to the Roadhouse on 29 January. A 15 per cent gratuity is now added to luncheon checks. Soft drinks are free.

CDR RAFAEL L. AYBAR, JN
COMMANDER'S MESSAGE

'Happy New Year!'

As Commander, I have reflected on the past and made new resolutions for our Squadron's future as well!

2004 is upon us. I can already hear the rumbling from our members arriving from the North as they gather every Thursday at the Lunch Bunch. They exchange fond greetings and stories of their long and hot summer revelry.

We have already been reunited with our loved ones and friends around the Thanksgiving dinner table. We thank the Almighty for the blessings bestowed upon us during the year. We celebrate the holidays with families and friends in a festive atmosphere. Many of us made new resolutions. Some of us reflected on the past and dreamt of the future. We have sailed on our "journey" for the past six months. As Commander, I have reflected on the past and made new resolutions for our Squadron's future as well.

One of my resolutions is to exceed the following accomplishments:

- On 10 June 2003 when we started our "journey," our Squadron had 399 members. Six months later we have 483 total members; an increase of 84 members. This is a 21.1 percent improvement in six months.
- Our Squadron received the "Robert D. Messenschlager Cooperative Charting Award" from District 8. We placed No. 12 nationally. This accomplishment is the product of the dedicated, loyal and enthusiastic efforts of our cooperative charting committee members.
- The distinguished District 8 Chapman Award was given to P/C Hans A. Heynau, N. Hans received our Educational Department's 2003 teacher of the year award for the magnificent development of our PowerPoint Presentation System.

- P/C Heynau also received the most prestigious National "Chapman Award" this year.
- We have a new Safety Officer ready and enthusiastic to embark on a new Safety program.
- I have written a success story about the Palm Beach Sail & Power Squadron Educational Department for the ENSIGN®. The United States Power Squadron's national magazine will publish this article as a part of its 2004 series of selected Success Stories.
- I can feel and sense the prevailing winds on my quarterdeck, and I have commanded the sails to be adjusted. The pounding of waves and the fresh ocean spray can be felt as we increase speed toward our destination.
- The frenzy and the chanting from all the committee chairpersons can be heard on deck, while we prepare to hoist more sail to go full speed ahead. YES! We are moving ahead! We are right on course.
- I can feel the vigor, the enthusiasm and the confidence of our new crew in the air, whilst we work and plan together.

I recommend that we make a New Years resolution to make our Squadron... "The Best yet in 2004." I am very proud to be the "Commander of this ship"!

HAPPY NEW YEAR!!!

From the Editor: Last hurrah for Archaic Plotting

Four issues of this publications ago, I told you in my first column that something else I planned to do this Squadron year was to take the Advanced Piloting course.

On the third Saturday of this month, I'll have a good reason for not clipping the hedges and sweeping the walk. I'll be at Headquarters bright and early with eight or nine other people taking the final AP exam. That test, along with a take-home plotting exercise, is all that's left.

Whether I pass or wash out, I understand I'll be making history as a member of the last class to take AP under the "old" system, one that was apparently worked out when a state-of-the-art nav station was equipped with a compass, a spyglass, a set of dividers, a couple of triangles and a first edition of Chapman's.

I take that back. The workbook does occasionally mention such exotic stuff as radar, radio beacons, depth finders, Loran C and actually, GPS, which I think stands for Goodbye, Plotting (or is that Plodding?) Students.

I guess I'm proud and happy to be taking the course the old fashioned way. Otherwise I would have never known that a lighthouse is also useful for getting the vertical angle of, so you can look up numbers on a table and figure out how far away you are from running aground.

Pardon me now while I bone up on the Rule of 12's.

Lt. Harry Lloyd, P, Afterdeck Editor

Pendant Fever

...items about Squadron people and events

The weather was cool and windy but bright and sunny for the Squadron's Holiday Raft-Up in Old Port Cove on Saturday, 20 December.

John Worssam's Euphoria served as the host boat, and it was in distinguished company. CDR Rafael Aybar, JN, tied his sailboat, Dona Blanca, on the port side, and Spike Spekeen's Schatzi tied up to starboard. Other boats joined, and 32 of the members attending brought a wrapped gift to share.

Among those attending was Lt/C Dennis Krakow, P, who underwent heart bypass surgery six weeks earlier. Krakow said is recovering on schedule, but won't be able to do any serious boating for a few more weeks.

A raft-up schedule for December was reduced to an one-boat anchoring exercise when windy weather scared other participants away.

Commodore's Ball and Holiday Party

The annual Commander's Ball and Holiday Party on 9 December at the PGA

At the most recent Nose-Up on The Loxahatchee on Halloween weekend, the low tide and the Squadron were slightly out of synch. But there was so much fun and food to be enjoyed that nobody complained about getting their ankles wet. Photos by 1st Lt. Ralph Morse, JN.

Member's Club was a sellout, with some 100 members attending.

Past commodores from our Squadron and numerous other squadron encircled the dance floor along with Squadron CDR Rafael L. Aybar, JN, and his wife, Olimpia.

P/C Les McWhorter and his banc, Special Edition, provided music for dancing.

P/R/C Malone joins Board

P/R/C Robert Malone, SN, was elected as a member at large to the Squadron Board of Directors at the December Bridge meeting.

Malone replaces 1st Lt. Ralph Morse, JN, who moved up to be assistant Administrative Officer.

Hoffmann is Safety Officer

Lt/C Mary Dodd, SN, Squadron Executive Officer, announced that Richard C. Hoffman, P, will serve as Safety Officer. Hoffmann replaces Carl Reidway, S, who resigned last fall.

Education News

'ABC' replaces BoatSmart® as introductory course

BoatSmart®, the introductory course that the Squadron teaches several times a year at various sites, will be replaced next January by a slightly different course.

Squadron Education Officer Lt/C Bill Eldridge, SN, made that announcement at the December Bridge Meeting.

The replacement course is called America's Boating Course, or ABC.

ABC is designed for skippers and crew of all types of watercraft. The course material covers seven chapters, which touch on:

- General information about boats and maintenance.
- Information to make your boating experience safer and more comfortable.
- Tips on being a more courteous boat operator.
- Laws and regulations to which you must adhere.

The course materials include both an 80 page full color manual and interactive "courseware." The manual is your textbook, and the "courseware" is your virtual instructor. Both cover the same topics but each in its own way. The manual includes extensive diagrams, graphics and boating tips. The courseware is narrated and interactive, making use of animation, video, and sound. Both manual and courseware provide review questions so that you can verify that you truly understand the material. In addition to the lessons, the courseware includes resources, which will come in handy long after you have completed the course; printable forms (checklists, accident reports, float plans, etc.) and links to reference documents such as the Navigation Rules.

Both a manual and a CD-ROM containing the courseware are provided with each purchase, as well as a PIN (Personal Identification Number) that provides you with Internet access to the courseware. Learn the basics of boating at your own pace, at home or away, using either a PC or a Macintosh.

America's Boating Course is recognized by the U.S. Coast Guard and has been approved by the National Association of State Boating Law Administrators.

In addition to the course material, a fellow boater in your area from either USPS® or the CG Auxiliary will contact you with an offer of assistance regarding state regulations, taking a final exam, and answering any other questions you may have. The United States Power Squadrons® and the Coast Guard Auxiliary are at your disposal.

America's Boating Course, a complete education package for $34.95 plus shipping and handling.

Piloting, 4 elective courses start this month

Classes start this month in Piloting, Weather, Cruise Planning and Engine Maintenance. Also, BoatSmart® classes will start on Jan. 7 at Palm Beach Lakes High School and Jan. 8 at Boynton Beach High School.

PILOTING: The first class is 8 January (all meetings are on Thursday nights at Squadron Headquarters). Call instructor P/C Jack Reid, SN at 747-5428. The fee for this course is $30.

WEATHER: The instructor is P/C Harvie Salford, SN (845-1540).

You may also call SEO Bill Eldridge, SN at 863-1461. The first class is Thursday, 15 Jan at the Coast Guard Auxiliary Building in Phil Foster Park. Fee is $40.

CRUISE PLANNING: P/D/Lt./C Jim O'Connor, SN (743-4408) and Lt. Phil Bouckaert, AP (863-7971) teach this course. The 9-week course runs from 07 January to 03 March and meets on Wednesdays at Headquarters. The fee is $35.

ENGINE MAINTENANCE: Call instructor Lt. Carl Nyman, JN (630-2072). Dates are 05 January through 14 March (Mondays). The fee is $35.

MARINE ELECTRONICS: Starts 13 January (Tuesday) and runs 10 weeks. Call P/Lt/C Phil Boyack, AP, at 740-1941, Fee is $35.

Another course, SAIL, will start on 02 February. Call instructor Lt. Art Dodd, SN (743-4702) for information. The fee is $20.

Classes in Instructor Qualification start in February at Phil Foster Park. BoatSmart® courses start on 18 February (Dwyer HS) and 7 April (Palm Beach Lakes).

Lt/C Joyce A. Newman, S
Secretary

The Law Log

Office of Boating and Waterways

An earlier Law Log reported that some of the state fuels tax collected at marinas would be directed to recreational boating purposes. Among those purposes is the Office of Boating and Waterways, which was to be outlined in a future Log. As Pogo might say, the future is now.

The OBW has been created from elements of the Bureau of Protected Species, the Division of Freshwater Fisheries and the Division of Law Enforcement; it is part of the Division of Law Enforcement.

The vision of the OBW "... is to provide safe and enjoyable boating for the people of Florida, and its visitors... The duties and responsibilities of this office include, but are not limited to, the oversight and coordination of waterway markers on state waters, providing boating education and boating safety programs, improving boating access, coordinating the removal of derelict vessels from state waters, economic development initiatives to promote boating in the state, and coordinating the submission of state comments on marine events"

Specifically, OBW will provide additional marine law enforcement officers, primarily for the purpose of enforcing laws designed to protect manatee populations; the placement of uniform waterway markers; the construction and maintenance of publicly owned boat ramps, piers and docks; the implementation and administration of competitive grant programs related to boating safety, boating education and to manatee avoidance technology, and economic development initiatives to promote boating in the state.

Popular Miami Boat Show Opens 6-Day Run on 12 Feb.

The Miami International Boat Show will dock in South Florida 12-17 February at the Miami Beach Convention Center and the Sealine Marina and Yachting Center.

The 63rd edition of the Miami International Boat Show will feature the newest powerboats, engines and marine accessories from around the world. In addition, visitors can test drive the latest powerboats at the show's in-water location at Sealine Marina and Yachting Center. The Miami Beach Convention Center location will be open 10 a.m.-6 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 12; 10 a.m.-8 p.m. Friday, Feb. 13, through Monday, Feb. 16; and 10 a.m.-6 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 17. The Sealine Marina and Yachting Center location will be open 10 a.m.-6 p.m. daily.

"There's something for everyone at the Miami International Boat Show when it comes to boats, electronics and marine accessories," said Cathy Johnston, southern regional manager of the National Marine Manufacturers Association, which produces the show.

The U.S. Power Squadrons is among the hundreds of exhibitors at the show.

Show features will include:

Big Game Room: Boat show organizers are teaming up with celebrity anglers and big-game professionals to create a Big Game Room, which will serve as a gathering place for fishing enthusiasts. Visitors can participate in fishing seminars and see product demonstrations led by tournament organizers. The Big Game Room will be in the east mezzanine of the Convention Center.

Discover Boating Center: The Discover Boating Center, which will be located in C Lobby of the Miami Beach Convention Center, is a resource to help prospective boaters find the boat that is right for them. Steve Tadd, the "Boating Guy," will be on hand during the show to answer visitors' questions and provide unbiased, brand-neutral advice about selecting, buying and maintaining a boat.

Shuttle-bus service will connect the show locations.

Admission is $15 for adults, $4 for children 6-12. $24 for an adult two-day pass, valid any two days Feb. 13-17.
